SECURITY SERVICES

INA is a premier security services provider offering highly trained and professional personnel to protect people, property, and data. We offer a wide range of services including consulting, event security, and site protection. Our commitment to quality and superior performance makes our service unparalleled in our industry. INA has a proven system for providing quality security operations that includes recruitment, training, supervision, and communication.

Recruitment – We recruit and retain qualified personnel by offering competitive salary, healthcare, and benefits. We recruit individuals with law enforcement, military, or extensive security industry backgrounds. All officers undergo comprehensive background screening.

Training – All officers attend INA Security Training Academy where they receive training not limited to: legal authority and use of force, conflict de-escalation, pepper spray, security operations, use of force/legal authority, terrorism awareness and prevention, OPSEC/INFOSEC, first aid/CPR/AED, and tactical handcuffing. Armed officers also receive training in tactical firearms, annual range qualification, and expandable baton. This training is in addition to the completion for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania ACT 235 Lethal Weapons Certification.

Supervision – INA supervisors attend an extensive training program where they are taught the principles of leadership, employment law, and management principles.
